

SEL & Beyond: A Dynamic Introduction to Social and Emotional Learning and Its Core Competencies

Location: Virtual

Website: <https://www.infobase.com/resources/sel-beyond-a-dynamic-introduction-to-social-and-emotional-learning-and-its-core-competencies-workshop/>

Cost: Free

Description: This six-part workshop with SEL experts Trisha DiFazio and Allison Roeser of SEL & Beyond will introduce SEL and the five SEL Core Competencies, show how you can effect change within yourself and your students, and provide helpful, bite-size strategies that you can put into action immediately. Each dynamic session equips viewers with the “what, why, when, where, and how” of SEL, providing easy-to-implement SEL strategies that can be used in any classroom or online learning environment across content areas and grade levels. Accompanying blog articles reinforce and elaborate on the material covered in each session.

Foundational SEL Practices for the Younger Grades: Paving a Path for all to Thrive

Date: (Four Day Sessions) October 10-20

Location: Virtual

Website: <https://www.instituteforsel.net/events/foundational-sel-practices>

Cost: $795

Description: This course will provide educators with an effective lesson sequence, and simple and profound practices to either begin or fine tune SEL. Institute for Social and Emotional Learning’s recommendations for enriching teaching practices utilize creative metaphor, reflective questioning, experiential learning, and analytic thinking to activate young hearts and minds. While this workshop is geared towards elementary teachers, the lessons and practices described can be adapted for all ages, including higher education and parents. This online course is all inclusive and available as four consecutive sessions only.

Adventure in the Classroom: Integrating SEL & Content Instruction (Online)

Date: Meets online every Wednesday and Saturday, December 1-11 (Wednesdays: 6:30-8:30PM and Saturdays 9:00-1:00PM Eastern Time)

Location: Virtual (This is also available in person in Beverly MA, Dec. 2-3)

Website: <https://www.workshops.pa.org/all-workshops/p/adventure-in-the-classroom-online>

Cost: $390

Description: Participants will experience a variety of adventure-based lessons and activities that reinforce content and enhance learning. Explore how the Adventure in the Classroom (AITC) model advances cognitive as well as social and emotional skills. Learn the Experiential Learning Cycle to promote reflective practices, self and social awareness, and deepen learning to support the learning needs of individual learners and the group. Review strategies for adapting existing lessons to the AITC model. Develop a plan for applying the model and methods to participants’ school settings. Explore group facilitation skills to help establish a highly effective community. Reflect on the impact of adventure and experiential learning while experiencing engagement, challenge, and fun.

Social and Emotional Learning Through Adventure

Date: Meets online every Monday and Thursday, October 18-October 28 (6:00-9:00PM Eastern Time)

Location: Virtual (Also available in person December 3-4, in Beverly MA)

Website: <https://www.workshops.pa.org/all-workshops/p/sel-through-adventure>

Cost: $390

Description: This online workshop is for interdisciplinary, K-12 educators who wish to support their students' social and emotional development better. Participants will be exposed to a wide range of adventure-based, SEL-linked activities. They will explore strategies for applying adventure concepts to align and integrate the diverse social and emotional learning initiatives in their school.

SEL for Tier II Interventions: Creating the Perfect Circle

Date: Fall 2021 and Spring 2022 dates TBA

Location: Virtual

Website: <https://www.workshops.pa.org/all-workshops/p/sel-for-tier-ii-interventions>

Cost: $390

Description: Schools and youth programs are stretched thin when it comes to serving students who need extra support. Group work – such as boys'/girls' groups, lunch bunches, or Tier 2 social support groups – can be a great way to provide targeted SEL services to more of our students. The group process is also a powerful way to help our students develop. In this online workshop, participants will learn strategies to make Tier 2 SEL groups effective. Our methodology can help you design a group for your students' needs and build your own Perfect Circle.
